Bay Park Fall 2018 Survey Highlights

Areas of Strength and Encouragement

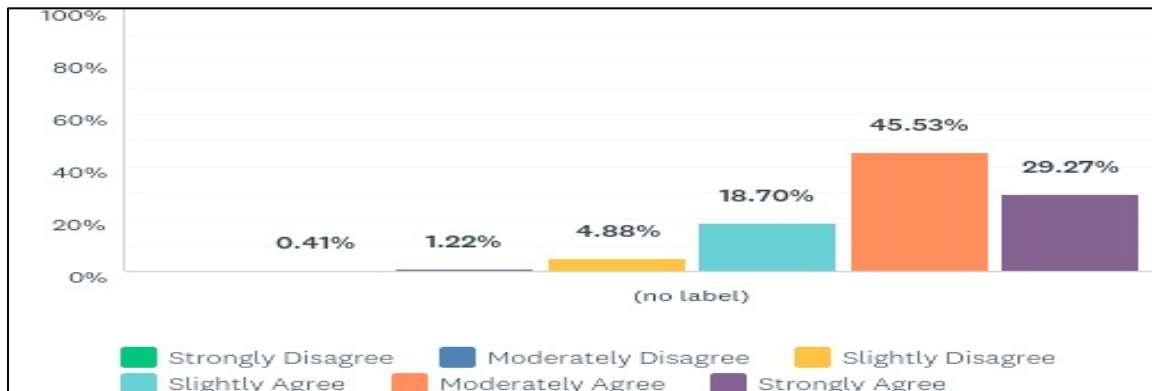

Question 2

We're both a young and intergenerational church

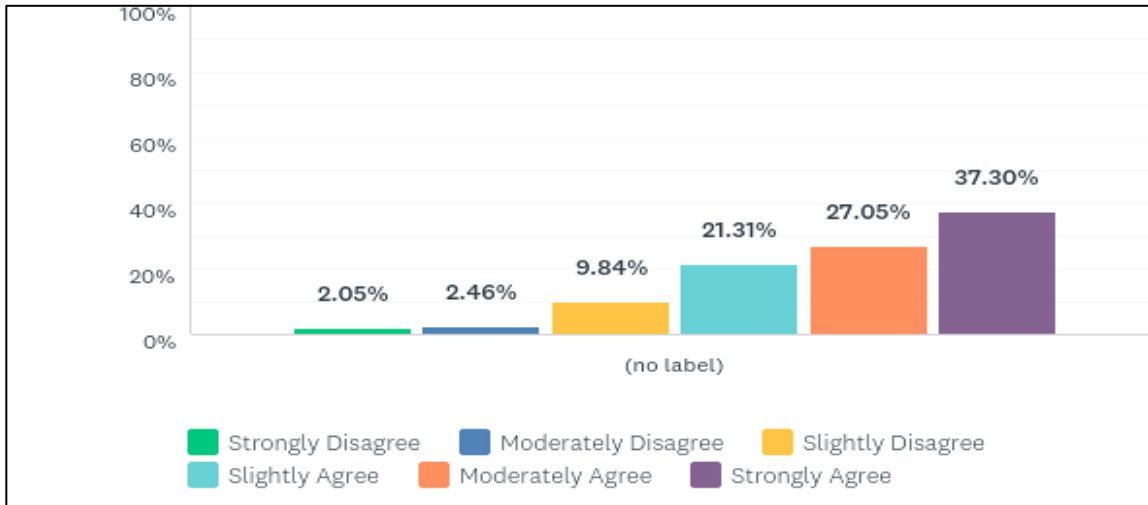

Question 4

74% of congregants feel moderately or strongly that mission and vision drives church decisions.

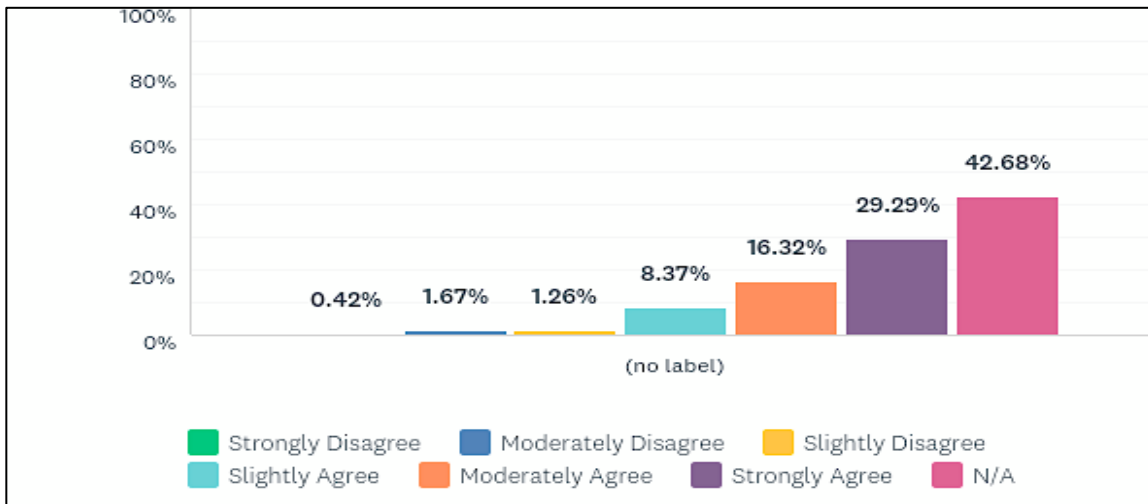

Question 5

75% of congregants feel Bay Park consistently challenges them to apply the Gospel to their own lives.

Question 9

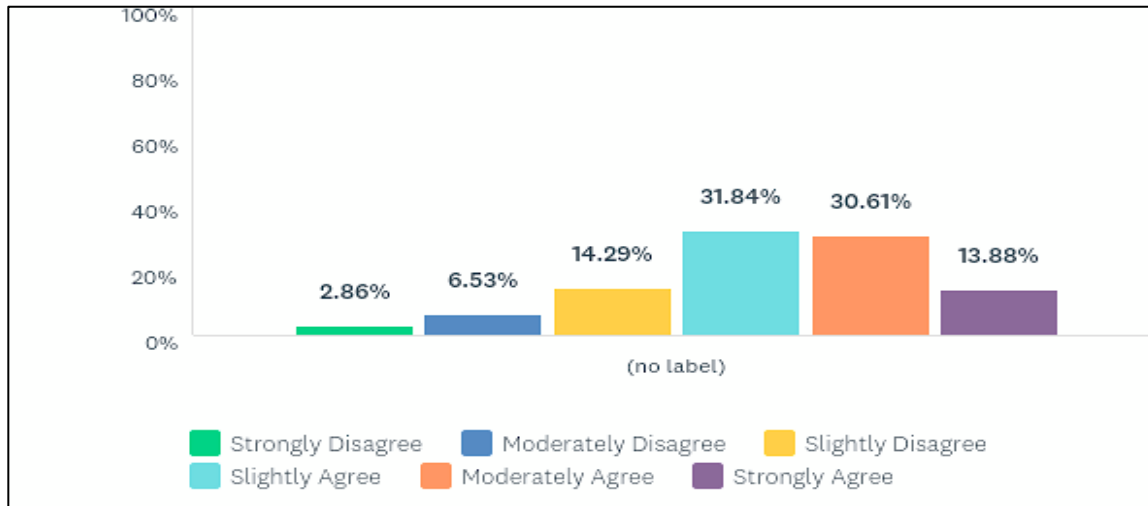

That in the space of 1 year, those feeling strongly confident inviting friends to Bay Park rose from 27% (2017) to 37% (2018). Likewise the number of people feeling uncomfortable inviting friends dropped from 22% (2017) to 14% (2018).

Question 11

That of those involved in a Life Group, 97% see it as having an impact on their spiritual growth.

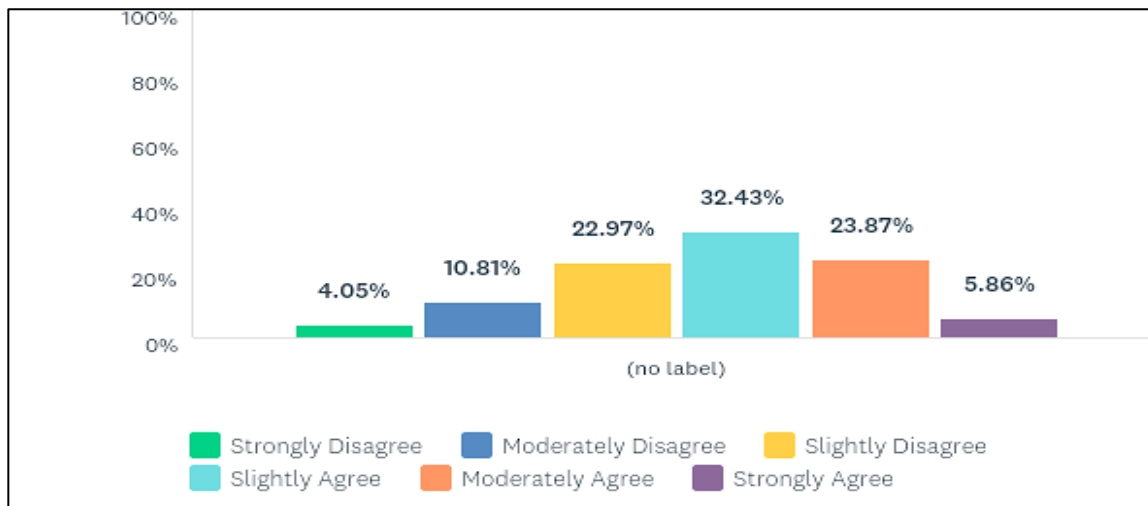

Areas in need of Improvement

Question 6

Though 76% of respondents agreed to feeling some measure of confidence in their ability to articulate the Gospel to others, only 14% felt strongly so.

Questions 11-13 – Though 82% agreed that Bay Park makes it easy to get involved in a Life Group (cf Q19), 43% stated “not applicable” regarding specific questions about Life Groups (cf Q11-13). The tension here is that while many know how to get involved in a Life Group, many still remain disengaged from Life Groups.

Question 18

Though thankful that the numbers regarding Bay Park’s volunteer training are on the rise by 8-10% in the agree categories since 2017, clearly we still have a long ways to go in the area of training. The good news is that increases in volunteer training and equipping also lead to improved volunteer retention and recruiting (cf Q15-17).
